

Bridport Prize Winners

2013

Poetry Winners Judge: Wendy Cope

1st The Opposite of Dave - Daisy Behagg, Bristol

2nd The Sellotape Factory - Mary Woodward, St Albans, Herts

3rd In a Restaurant - Stephen Santus, Oxford

Highly Commended (alphabetical order)

How did I ever think this would be ok? - Virginia Astley, Maiden Newton, Dorset

Rimbaud - Richard Berengarten, Cambridge

The Veranda - Lisa Brockwell, NSW, Australia

Vegetable Patch - Julian Broughton, Uckfield, E Sussex

On My Grandmother's Bench - Jenny Danes, Braintree, Essex

I Left My Hair in San Francisco - Sallie Durham, Shoreham-by-Sea, W Sussex

Vigil - Emily Goldman, New York, USA

Vocab. - Doreen Gurrey, York

Satori - Lorn Macintyre, St Andrews, Scotland

Unravelling - Shirley Waite, Scarborough, N Yorks

Short Story Winners Judge: Michèle Roberts

1st A Man in Three Moments - Eve Thomson, Edinburgh

2nd TXL - Kerry Hood, Bristol

3rd Oyster Woman - Sheila Crawford, Hexham, Northumberland

Highly Commended (alphabetical order)

Disappearance - Dima Alzayat, Edinburgh

mice story, not his - Benjamin Dipple, Chichester, W Sussex

So Much Lemonade - Barry Lee Thompson, Victoria, Australia

Yesterday's Pies - Marinella Mezzanotte, London

Peru - Manus McManus, Dublin

Praise - Jennifer Mills, N/A, Australia

Jotunheim - John Murphy, Dublin

Rambutan! - Mai Nardone, New York, USA

Contrails - Noel O'Regan, Tralee, Ireland

Star Sailor (Aistron Nautes) - Rebecca Swirsky, London

Flash Fiction Winners Judge: David Swann

1st Polio - Nicholas Ruddock, Ontario, Canada

2nd Fine - Michelle Wright, Victoria, Australia

3rd Locked In - Sarah Baxter, Colchester, Essex

Highly Commended (alphabetical order)

Ern Kiley's House - Josephine Rowe, Victoria, Australia

Lincolnshire - Paul Stephenson, London

The Edge of the Woods - David Steward, Norwich

The Dorset Prize

Virginia Astley (poem)